QUESTIONS ABOUT DISABILITY/ACCOMMODATIONS

Please answer the following questions as thoroughly and honestly as possible in order to assist us in determining what the most appropriate accommodations are for you. Information provided is CONFIDENTIAL to the extent allowed by law.

1. How does your disability impact you academically, in lab/clinic, and/or in daily activities? Please explain some of the ways in which your disability has manifested itself both currently and historically.
2. How do the requested accommodations help you to compensate for your disability?

3. For the accommodations you are presently requesting, have you ever received these before? If so, where and under what circumstances?

4. Have you ever been denied accommodations? If so, please describe the circumstance.

5. If accommodations have not been used in the past, please address why accommodations are being requested at this time.

I understand that the information provided on this form will be used by the ADA Coordinator at Baptist Health Sciences University to assist in determining the most effective accommodations and/or compensatory strategies for my use.
